

In my experience, the best way to ensure that the bowl sits upright in your hand is to adopt this grip. The middle two fingers straddle the centre line of the bowl so that the weight is balanced either side. The outer fingers rest on the grips. The grips are there for a reason. Use them.