

Once the bowl is sitting in your hand, your thumb will find its natural position. It shouldn't be right on top of the bowl and should be no further over than the grips. If your thumb sits on the grip this is known as a "claw" grip. Equally your thumb should be no lower than the centre ring. If it is on the centre ring that is a "cradle" grip.